PRESS RELEASE

51 HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS COMPETE FOR THE TITLE OF MISS HIGH SCHOOL AMERICA 2010

March 3-6, 2010 - Branson, Missouri - 51 Outstanding high school girls, from across the United States, will travel to Branson, Missouri to compete for the title of Miss High School America at the Dick Clark American Bandstand Theater.

These 51 beautiful young women will be representing their high school and state as they compete in three phases of competition. They will all have a five minute interview with the judges and compete onstage in both the Fashion and Evening Gown portion of the competition.

The new 2010 Miss High School America will be awarded a $10,000 scholarship, a photo shoot with designer Tony Bowls, a photo shoot with the leading prom and pageant manufacturer Jaszy Couture along side a prize package totaling over $20,000. The Top 5 contestants will be chosen to be the lead fashion models for the 2011 Cool Book. This publication is distributed to every junior and senior girl in high school. Over a million people will see the face of the Top 5 contestants of the Miss High School America Pageant.

During their stay in Branson, the delegates will attend an array of activities that will make their week more than a pageant - it will be a family vacation of a lifetime. One of the week's highlights will be the contestants being special guests at Legends in Concert - the best show in Branson. The Miss High School America Pageant will set the stage for an exciting week to remember, as a true example of the best in pageantry. The Miss High School America production will also include some of the best entertainment that Branson has to offer.

Come join us in Branson, Missouri as we crown our very first Miss High School America.
